

Meeting rooms have been changed for the Indiana AAPT section meeting, Saturday morning April 21, 2007

Instead of Olin Hall, the INAAPT meeting rooms will be on the top floor of Crapo Hall.

To reach Crapo, it is easiest to drive past the water tower, and park in the 'back' lot closest to the smokestack. One bears to the right of the smokestack and enters the lower level of Crapo via a glass door. Then it's up two flights to the meeting rooms. If the stairs are a problem, contact Mike Moloney (moloney@rose-hulman.edu, or 812 877 8302).

On Saturday morning, if you park and enter by the water tower, go up one flight, then take a right and go all the way down that long hall. At the end of that hall you will be in the chemistry department. Take a left and you will see the top floor of Crapo hall ahead of you.

The rooms in Crapo will have signs on them to indicate the previously-assigned Olin room, so you won't need to make changes on the printed program.

Registration and other events Friday evening will be on the lower level of Moench Hall, as previously announced. (Enter next to the water tower, don't go up the stairs, go straight ahead, then take a right.) Registration will be outside BL-114, the first room on your left. Demos and sharing will be in BL-114, and the exciting Excel Animation with Sliders workshop will be in CL-117.
